

PERFORMANCE COACH (SMALLBORE RIFLE)

CONTRACT FOR SERVICES (UP TO 130 DAYS PER YEAR)

The sportscotland institute of sport is working with Scottish Target Shooting Performance Programme and is currently looking to engage a World Class Smallbore Rifle Performance Coach to train Scottish athletes in their preparations to compete successfully at the Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games and to gain selection to British Shooting teams. The Coach will deliver coaching to key athletes in a training environment and also at competitions around the world as they prepare for the Games.

ESSENTIAL CRITERIA:

- An internationally recognised coaching qualification e.g ISSF and/or a proven track record of coaching and improving performance athletes
- The ability to lead and deliver quality practice to the Scottish athletes
- Ability to communicate effectively
- Experience of selecting athletes for teams and competitions
- Passion for the sport and for Scottish success

NOTES:

- This Contract for Services role is available until 31 March 2017 and will be reviewed thereafter with a view to extension through to 30 April 2018 subject to agreement.
- Requires up to 130 days per year which will be paid at a daily rate of £170. Reasonable travelling and other expenses will be paid in line with sportscotland's Expenses Policy.
- The successful Performance Coach will work directly with the Shooting Performance Programme Manager and the sportscotland High Performance Manager for Shooting.
- There will be an expectation that the Performance Coach will perform necessary administrative duties in line with the role and make recommendations to the Shooting High Performance Group on athlete selections for competitions and teams.

TO APPLY:

- Please note your interest in this post by submitting a CV outlining your coaching experience and skills for the position to Craig Faill (craig.faill@sportscotland.org.uk) by 12:00 noon on Friday 4 March 2016.
