c New cap.

Scotland celebrated this the tenth match with a resounding win to lead 6-4 in the series. The new-look Army team fielded five new "caps" and the match marked the farewell after an ever-present record of "The Skipper", Peter Martin. Peter signed-off typically with a beautiful double possible on the 100 yards.

Scotland blooded six newcomers in the course of the match. For two of them, Jim Cole-Hamilton and Duncan Garrow, it was a dream start and for the others sound experience. Jim's top score in the match was especially satisfying after the rifle trouble that plagued his week at the Scottish meeting. Clearly the solid week's practice for this match, put in by the Scottish Team at their secret seaside training camp, paid dividends!

Warmest thanks are extended to Sandy Stronach for his meticulous conduct of the Stats. task, to Charlie & Lottie Morrison and the Portlethen Club for their generous hospitality on the Saturday evening, to Army team captain Denis Mills for acting range officer so efficiently and to Jack Lavety for his tireless labour and organisational skills.
