Scotland v. North Island, New Zealand

The scores from New Zealand arrived in good time to announce the match result at the AGM. Scotland won by 32 points. Both teams were disappointed in their scores although this was the first time the match was shot on the new 1989 series targets.

Scores were as follows :

Scotland		North Island		dif
WHJ Mitchell	398	L Arthur	Upper Hutt	396 2
H Simpson, Jnr	397	G Taylor	Levin	396 1
AF Mackenzie	396	K Burt	Palmerston, Nth	394 2
R Law	396	S Aspden	Putarura	393 3
J Lavety	395	R McNair	Dannevirke	393 2
W Moonie	395	I Stuart	Palmerston, Nth	392 3
CG DeJonckheere	394	J Cockerill	Wellington	391 3
NG Lemon	394	D Gibb	Auckland	391 3
CWC Ogle	392	D Blake	Waitekerei, Auck.	388 4
AJ Dick	392	A Brinkworth	Hamilton	388 4
TS Hastings	391	G Brinkworth	Hamilton	388 3
DAM McIntosh	390	R Dixon	Auckland	388 2
IA Kerr	387	S Petterson	Auckland	388 -1
WT Vaughan	386	J Brinkworth	Auckland	385 1
C Ronaldson	384	R Caie	Auckland	384 0
	-----			-----
Team Totals	5,887			5,855 32
Reserves
CIH Thomson	392	A Dixon	Auckland	392
		JG Williams	Pukekohe	388

There were no outstanding scores in either team and the difference column on the right above shows that the relative strength of the middle order of the team (6th to 11th scores in order) carried the match for Scotland.

Well done, one and all.
